

THANK YOU

All praise is due to Allah, the Creator and Sustainer of all things:

And there is no creature on earth but that upon Allah is its provision, and He knows its place of dwelling and place of storage. All is in a clear register.

Hud 11: 6

Nothing would have been possible without His blessing and guidance. All thanks are to Allah for allowing this compilation to be completed. May this compilation meet its purpose – to benefit others and to act as a reminder to myself. Ultimately, however, everything is for Him.

Peace and blessings upon our beloved Messenger, Prophet Muhammad (صلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ), the comfort to the eyes of the monotheists and the one raised for the entire humankind, and also upon his household and companions and those who follow the righteous path.

This compilation would also not have been possible without the inspiration, guidance and support of so many individuals in my life – my family, my mentors, my teachers, and my friends whom I call my brothers and sisters – there are just too many to mention.

I would, nevertheless, like to take this opportunity to thank some of the most important individuals in my life. They are the ones who had made a big impact and had, directly or indirectly, helped me complete this compilation –

- My parents, who have instilled the right values in me, which made me the person that I am today. Thank you for your patience in bringing me up despite the many challenges I have brought into your lives.
- My beloved wife and better half, Gee – thank you for accepting me when I had nothing and staying by my side in spite of everything. You have been my strength for many years and I am forever grateful to Allah for bringing you into my life.
- My beloved son, Ruzain, our special gift from Allah. You have taught us the true meaning of unconditional love. Truth be told, you are the main reason I decided to put together this compilation in the first place. Hopefully, one day, when you are able to understand better, you would be able to benefit from the lessons of this compilation and get to know your daddy better.
- My small nucleus and immediate family – my brother, nanny, nephews, nieces – and not forgetting my extended family – my in laws. Each of you has played an important part in my life, and has inspired me through joyful and happy moments.
- My remarkable sister in law, Roseleen, who out of the blue was asked to become my editor but gladly accepted the unpaid task with open arms. I can't thank you enough for sparing your time reviewing and editing the whole compilation. Because of you, some of the worst structured sentences turned out okay.
- My brothers, Hafizal (Seroja) and Murshidi (Tanjung), who have been by my side throughout my reverting journey. They are my teachers who had helped me return to Allah, and who guided me when I was unsure. Both of you have played a significant role in my life and I pray that this will continue to the end of time.

- My brother and mentor, Mohamad Salihuddin Ahmad, who played a major role in the early years of my career, and who accepted me as his student when I knew nuts. His sincere knowledge sharing has influenced and formed a significant part of who I am today. I thank you from the bottom of my heart for all that you have given me throughout the years.
- My protégé, Wan Intan, who (un)willingly became the very first proof reader. I truly appreciate the honest feedbacks given throughout the writing process. More importantly, thank you for inspiring and motivating me to pursue my passion of sharing.
- My brother, Zek, also fondly known as my dad's adopted son, thank you for the beautifully designed book cover. Also, my brother Farid, who gave me a good deal, which made printing the first batch of this compilation possible.
- My "blood" brothers (as well as sisters) and "homies", who have always been by my side, for better or for worse – Ucoi, Abbas, Kechik, Cimok (who also helped verify the hadiths and Quran verses in the compilation), Ejai, Sid, Ajuk, Apol, Mirul, Beego, Tomok, Chemet, Ariff, Sheefa, Ita, Pini, Sue – the list goes on and on, there are just too many of you to mention. Thank you everyone, for being part of my life and for teaching me about life and friendship.

My sincere apologies if I missed your name in this appreciation note but do know that each one of you matters to me. I have no doubt whatsoever that each of you who have entered my life have given me, in one way or another, valuable life lessons, and for that, I am eternally grateful. May Allah bless all of you for all the wonderful things you have done for me.
